Tom Walker Barnsley

We had the pleasure of taking care of Tom Walker and his team when he performed at The Glassworks in town in February. It was certainly a day to remember.

Incident On Site

Our amazing control team detected people entering one of our monitored sites, they thought by covering their faces they wouldn't be identified, our control dispatched the police with three of the six being arrested. Another customer happy that no materials or equipment stolen or damaged.

Staff undertake enhanced Banksman training

Three of our staff have recently completed their NPORS Vehicle banksman operations training. The NPORS Vehicle Banksman Operations course is aimed at banksmen and signallers who are guiding and marshalling vehicles in loading decks and yards. It covers the legal issues as well as the practical considerations that need to be taken into account to ensure that such vehicle manoeuvres are undertaken safely. Director of Operations Mark O'Neill said, “We are delighted to be able to provide our staff a range of upskilling courses that allow them to work on diverse sites safely while providing a valuable service to our clients”.

Nightlife Teams continue their amazing work in Barnsley's Night-time Economy

Our amazing team of Nightlife Angels and Nightlife Marshals have yet again been highlighted for the work they are doing in our local town centre at weekends helping and assisting local visitors to the town. Due to the initiative that we started over two years ago we have been asked to provide advice and recommendations to our neighbouring Police forces on how they can start their own Nightlife teams. MD Andy Nicholson said “we have been approached by two local police forces to ask for our help and advice on how they can set up their town Nightlife teams which we are only happy to do. We are strong believers in sharing best practice and this is one initiative that deserves to be rolled out all over the country”.
